

---

MASTER OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

---

Anne Burkholder M.Div., M.A., M.St.

Biography:

Ms. Burkholder is the chief executive officer of the YWCA Salt Lake City, a position she has held since 2000. She has worked in the nonprofit sector for more than 20 years in a variety of areas including health and human services, academic publishing, refugee studies, and nonviolent conflict resolution. She has served as president of the YWCA Southwest/Delta Regional Council, president and two-term board member of the Utah Nonprofits Association, and president of the association for executives of United Way partner agencies (UWEDA). She is an adjunct faculty member at the University of Utah, and has taught MPA courses in “Ethics and Public Administration” and “Strategic Management for Nonprofit Organizations”. Her academic interests focused on theology, philosophy, and ethics, and she earned master’s degrees from Yale Divinity School, the University of Connecticut, and Oxford University. Anne will be teaching “Ethics and Public Administration” in Summer 2010.