

MASTER OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

MICHAEL B. ZUHL M.P.A

Biography:

Michael Zuhl received his Bachelor of Science in Political Science at the University of Utah in 1973. He went on to receive his Masters of Public Administration at the University of Utah in 1979. He has been an adjunct professor at the graduate and undergraduate level in Political Science since 1993. Classes taught include: Public Budgeting and Finance, Local Government Administration.

Michael has held a wide variety of managerial positions in the public sector at the state, and city level in Utah. Positions include: Director of State of Utah Budget Office, Director of Department of Community and Economic Development and Director of Citizens for Balanced Transportation. He also served as former mayor, Mayor Palmer DePaulis, Chief of Staff, has worked as a private consultant in state and local government financing and acted as President of Mike Zuhl and Associates: a public affairs and management consulting firm. Currently he serves as Director of Government and Public Affairs for R&R Partners where he manages a variety of initiative campaigns, lobbies at the Utah State Legislature and many Utah local governments and engages in other general public affairs work.